INDEX TO VOLUME 26

(Asterisked entries are titles, some slightly abbreviated.)

*Acheson, R. M., and Hewitt, D., Physical Development in the English and the American Pre-school Child, 343-56
Admixture, white, in American Indians, 327-8
Africans, birth weight of, 156-71; mentality of, 358-60
Age—changes in body form, 330-6; skeletan, 344 ff.
Australopithecinae, status of, 180, 185, 304-5

*Baer, M. J., Patterns of Growth of the Skull as Revealed by Vital Staining, 80-126
Benninghoff, A., on split-line technique, 220-38
Blood groups, 361, of Mapuche Indians of Chile, 324-9
Body build and menarchy, 127-32
Body form, age changes in, 330-6
Bone, split-line study of Haversian systems in, 221 ff., 309
Brace, C. L., 239-68
Brožek, J., 357-8
Brush Foundation Survey of Child Growth, 343-56

Carothers, J. C., 358-60
*Carpenter, C. R., Tentative Generalizations on the Grouping Behavior of Non-Human Primates, 269-76; on social habits of infra-human primates, 185-6, 219, 310
Chile, Mapuche Indians of, 324-9
Climate and evolution, 190, 192
Constitution—cultural conditions and human capacities, 77-8; and menarchy, 128 ff.; and sex ratio, 337-42
Cultural—capacity of non-human primates, 288-303, 311-2; factors in human biology, 71-9

Dahlberg, A. A., on fields of tooth variability, 243, 266
*Davis, D. D., Primate Evolution from the Viewpoint of Comparative Anatomy, 211-9; on heritage and habitus, 307-8
Demography—of Detroit, 143-55; of Japan, 133-42; of non-human primates, 271-4; of Yap, 21-51
Depopulation of Yap, 21-51
Diet—and culture, 72; and growth, 76; in New Guinea, 33; and physical deterioration, 32-4

Edwards, D. A. W., on thickness of skin and subcutaneous fat, 330-3
England, growth of children in, 343-56
*Erikson, G. E., Comparative Anatomy of New World Primates and Its Bearing on the phylogeny of Anthropoid Apes and Men, 210

Face—growth of, 81, 91-4, 109-13, 121-2; of non-human primates, 222 ff.
Fat factor, and menarchy, 129-31
Fat distribution—age changes in, 330-6; in males 59-69; sex differences in, 336
Fertility of people of Yap, 42 ff.
Fossil man, 360

*Garn, S. M., Fat Patterning and Far Inter-correlations in the Adult Male, 59-69; Cultural Factors Affecting the Study of Human Biology, 71-9
Gavan, J. A., on E. A. Hooton, dedication preceding 179
Genetics, human, 73-5
Germany, forensic anthropology in, 1-20
Growth—of the skull, 80-126; and socio-economic environment, 349, 354-5

*Hayes, K. J., and Hayes, C., Cultural Capacity of Chimpanzee, 288-303, 311-2
Head breadth and interpupillary distance, 320-2
*Heath, C. W., Physique, Temperament and Sex Ratio, 337-42
Henckel, C., 324-9
Hewitt, D., 343-56
*Hooton, E. A., Importance of Primate Studies in Anthropology, 179-88; portrait, frontispiece following 178; on his studies of primates, dedication preceding 179, 304-5, 310-1
*Hunt, E. E., Jr., Kidder, N. R., and Schneider, D. M., Depopulation of Yap, 21-51
Hunt, E. E., Jr., on sex ratio related to physique and temperament on Yap, 342
Hypertelorism, interpupillary distance in, 314 ff.

Indians, American, Mapuche of Chile, 324-9
Intelligence, of primates, 280 ff., 294 ff.
Interpupillary distance, 313-23

*Jacobson, L., Relationship Between Menarcheal Age and Adult Body Structure, 127-32
Japan, Neonatal deaths in, 133 ff.
*Jepsen, J. L., Fossil Primates in the New World, 189-90

*Kerwood, L. A., Lang-Brown, H., and Penrose, L. S., Interpupillary Distance in Mentally Defective Patients, 313-23
Kidder, N. R., 21-51
Krogman, W. M., on skull growth, 82, 119-21

Lang-Brown, H., 313-23
*Lasker, G. W., The Question of Physical Selection of Mexican Migrants to the U. S. A., 52-8
Life span, of people of Yap, 27 ff.

Marks, R. V., 143-55
Marriage in Yap, 42-4
Massler, M., on skull growth, 84-5, 91, 93, 104, 114-6
*Mayer, A. J., and Marks, R. V., Infant Mortality by Race, Economic Level and Cause of Death, 143-55
Measurement, mental, 357-8

Menarchy, age at, and body build, 127-32
Mexican migrants to the U. S. A., 52-8
Migration and physical selection, 52-8
Mongolism, interpupillary distance in, 314 ff.
Monke, J. V., 358-60
Montagu, M. F. A., 172-8, 360-3
Mortality—causes of, 135 ff., and economic status, 149-53; infant, and race, 147-52; in Japanese newborn, sex ratio of, 133 ff.; of people of Yap, 26-31
Movius, H. L., Jr., 360

Negro—mentality of African, 358-60; weight changes in first 10 days of life, 156-71; American (see non-whites)
*Nissen, H. W., Problems of Mental Evolution in the Primates, 277-87
Non-whites, infant mortality of, 147 ff.
Nutrition—of people of Yap, 33-4; trochanteric fat as a measure of, 67

Paternity, determination of, 3 ff.
*Patterson, B., Geologic History of Non-Hominid Primates in the Old World, 191-209; on uncertainties in primate phylogeny, 305-7
Penrose, L. S., 313-23
Population of Yap, 21-51

Race—and infant mortality, 147-52; mixture in American Indians, 327-8

*Sandoval, L., and Henckel, C., ABO, MNS, and Rh-Hr Blood Groups of the Mapuche Indians of Cautín Province, Chile, 324-9
Schneider, D. M., 21-51
Schultz, A. H., on Primate phylogeny, 202-3; on skull growth, 82, 119
*Schuman, E. L., and Brace, C. L., Metric and Morphologic Variations in the Dentition of the Liberian Chimpanzee, 239-68, 308-9
*Schwidetzky, I., Forensic Anthropology in Germany, 1-20
Seltzer, C. C., on somatotype, 337, 339
Sex difference in fat distribution, 336
Sex ratio—in relation to physique and temperament of father, 337-42; intragroup, in primates, 273
Simpson, G. G., on Primate phylogeny, 198, 203, 279
Skeletal age, 343 ff.
*Škerlj, B., Further Evidences of Age Changes in Body Form, 330-6
Skinfold thickness, 330 ff.
Social organization of non-human primates, 185, 269-76, 310
Somatotype and sex ratio of offspring, 337-42
Stature of people of Yap, 37-8
Stillbirths, sex ratio of, 138, 140
Straus, W. L., Jr., on Primates, 173, 182, 304-12

*Takahashi, E., Sex Ratio of Neonatal Deaths in Japan, 133-42
*Tappen, N. C., Comparative Functional Analysis of Primate Skulls by the Split-Line Technique, 220-38
Teeth of Chimpanzee, 239-68

Todd, T. W., on skeletal maturation standards, 343 ff., 353

Washburn, S. L., on analysis of skeleton, 83, 175. 309
Weidenreich, F., on skull growth, 81, 121-2
Weight—and subcutaneous fat thickness, 63, 66-8; at birth, 156-71
Wiener, A. S., 361

Yap, people of—fertility, 42 ff.; intestinal parasites in, 39-40; mortality of, 26-31; nutrition, 33-4; population, 21-51; reproduction, 42-5; stature of, 37-8; venereal disease among, 40-2

Zuckerman, S., on crosses in Lemurs, 184
